APRIL 2014

First item on the agenda at the April 8, 2014 Board of Directors meeting was introducing prospective member Jon Washburn who was sponsored by Larry DeJonghe and Carl Waclawski. Jon and Sharon live in Fredonia, and own a 19ft Stingray 2008 power boat named "My Sharona". Jon has been boating for over 15 years. An electrician by trade, he will be able to help with building & maintenance duties. He also lists musician (drummer) as a skill/hobby, which can be of use for social activities. Welcome to DYC- Jon & Sharon. We received a letter from Don Rebic, on behalf of his mother and himself, declining membership, but thanking the club for the good years Mel & he enjoyed while in the club. Rob Dahn, Jr. has requested to be put at the bottom of the waiting list, which was approved. The next applicant on the list, James Priest, will be invited to the May meeting.

As the season gets closer, facilities chief Larry DeJonghe reports that he's got a full crew for Sat. May 3rd and thanks to all who have offered the power washers for that day. The official Opening Day will be the following week- Sat. May 10 and we really need a lot of workers. If you are planning to be at DYC for the May 10 work party, please call him at 672-4061 or his cell- 679-6017 so he'll know about how many members will be on hand.

That same date- Sat. May 10 will signal the start of DYC Social Activities- with our "Spring Fling" at the club, beginning at 6pm. Same format as our Fri. cocktail parties: bring an appetizer & pay $5.00, and get together with all those folks you haven't seen for months. For something different, Social Chair- Kathy Peters says we'll have a new game called "Show Me the Money" for anyone who's interested. See the enclosed flyer. Then 2 weeks after- on Sat. May 24, the Damore's & Lafferty's will host the Memorial Day Party, which will start at 5:00 pm. All the details, times, costs, etc- can be found on the Memorial Day Party flyer, also enclosed.

Scott Mackay, Education chrm, reports that all is in place with JCC for this year's Sailing Programs, scheduled for July 7 -11, with orientation for both youth and adults set for July 2 from 5:30- 6:30. Those interested in registering have 3 options- by phone- 363-6500, by mail, or in person at JCC No. County, on Bennett Rd. All the details are on the enclosed flyers. Hank and Julie Danielson will be instructors, but Scott says we're looking for someone to help out as an assistant sailing instructor; if interested call him at 672-6758. In the meantime, the pintails will brought to Lou Deering's to be worked on.

Next DYC Board Meeting
Tues. May 13, 7 PM At DYC

Kathy Fox, Race & Recreation Chairman has put together this year's schedule of activities, which includes a Poker Run and a "Family Fun Race". Cmdr Jim Rizzo- has a Commodore's Party planning committee meeting set for later this month.

Should be able to set a date for the event at that time. If anyone would like to help work on it, call him at 673-5045

More members are opting for email delivery of their NN each month; We will be going through the lists and try to contact those who haven't made that change yet. If you don't have access to email, please notify us..

Also, if you have any news you'd like to share with your fellow boaters, let us know- call 366-8527, or email – goodnitegracie@designny.com.

What's Happening

We were sad to learn that Connie Van Scoter passed away April 15. Jack & she had owned a small power boat while active members, their main focus being the Cockaigne Ski Center, Several members knew her also from the Fredonia Shakespeare Club, to which she belonged for over 50 years. Our condolences to Jack and his family.

Best wishes to John King who's at the County Home, but Shirley says that he's doing well and should be back home soon.

Robyn Beardsley will be again participating in the "Ride for Roswell" this year at the end of June. If you'd like to donate call her at 338-2830- by June 1st.

The Sensory Winery and Art Gallery in Ripley is the site of "Spring Fling/April Fools", an art exhibition of works by nineteen artist members of the North Shore Arts Alliance, running now through May 10. Saying goodbye to winter & hello to spring, the show displays works in various media, and works by the artists which maybe different than usual. Among the featured artists are our own Ronnie Lafferty, Marcia Merrins and Susan Mackay.

Jason Schmidt is head of "Lighten Up Dunkirk-Fredonia", a weight loss challenge fund raiser to benefit the American Cancer Society. He said with such high participation and support, it 's a win-win for everyone involved: participants, local businesses and the charity.

Mary Jane Covley Walker was featured guest on "Dialogues", a half hr. program from SUNY airing on Public Access Chnl 5 in Fredonia, chnl 12 in Dunkirk. She spoke about her experiences as a volunteer for the Red Cross during disasters such as Hurricane Sandy. The program runs 2 times daily thru Apr. 25.

We hear that Einer Wheel did some Ice Sailing this winter, maybe he's got some pictures to share.

Laura Poweski, (Tom & Kim) was named to Dean's List at Mercyhurst Univ.; Alyssa Vianese (grand-daughter of Perce Bernatz (Gaasch), was honored by Fredonia Rotary; Named to Fredonia Honor Roll were Alex Christy, (Brett & Jenn, Jim & Chris); Alexander Maytum (Mark & Julie, BoB & Marilyn); Fotini Landis (Andrew & Anthanasia); Riley Gustafson (Frank-aka-Skip) received Principal's Award with Distinction at FHS.

In the High School Sports Section of the Observer - Bre Dahn (Robert & Tarie) returning as a key player on the FHS Softball team. Devin Kowalewski (Dave & Carol) was recently named the High School Athlete of the day on WDOE.

"The Belle of Amherst" with Christina Rausa set for Wed. Apr. 23 at Jamestown Community College, and Thurs. Apr. 24 at Cutco Theater on JCC's Cattaraugus.Co. Campus in Olean. The one woman show is based on the life of Emily Dickinson. Tina has performed this previously several times, receiving high praise from reviewers, citing her ability to make the audience feel Dickinson's presence on the stage, and her vision of the poetess is filled with passion.

Safely Sail on the Waters

Our experienced sailing instructors will help crews learn to maneuver a small sailboat on the open water. By the end of the lessons you will know the language of sailing, the rules of boating, and how to solve problems that can come up while you are on the water. Classes will take place at the Dunkirk Yacht Club, Lakeshore Drive, Dunkirk, NY on Lake Erie.

Additional information:

- A swimming evaluation will take place for all students during class on July 7th. This evaluation will include the ability to tread water and swim wearing a life jacket with clothing. This is not a swimming test.
- On July 16th you will get a chance to sail on the Shark racing boats and enjoy a cookout after the race. (Details provided at a later date)
- Class requirement: a well-fitting U.S. Coast Guard approved life jacket.

Our instructors, Henry and Julie Danielson, are both members of the U.S. Power Squadrons. Mr. Danielson has taught Safe Boating for many years throughout Chautauqua County. The Danielson's have sailed all 5 Great Lakes, the Atlantic Coast of Spain, the Mediterranean, and much more.

No shows and cancellations fewer than three days prior to the class are subject to the full registration fee. Substitutions are accepted anytime. JCC reserves the right to postpone or cancel courses due to insufficient enrollment.

Orientation July 2, 5:30-6:30 pm

(Kids Ages 12-16)

Spend the week learning how to safely handle a small sailboat on the water. You will learn the language of sailing, how to boat safely, the rules of boating, and solve potential problems that could occur on the water.

Under the watchful eye of their instructors student teams will work together to sail 14ft. Pintail sailboats. Here they will put their skills to the test and learn how to work together as a team to keep the crew and vessel safe. Lessons will be held at the Dunkirk Yacht Club, Lakeshore Drive, Dunkirk, NY on Lake Erie.
